

Q6: First, note that each cycle has an order of L_i , since it will take L_i applications of the cycle to return each element back to itself. Thus the order of any product of cycles must be divisible by the length of each cycle. The smallest such number is $\text{lcm}(L_1, \dots, L_k)$